1. We have a new President of the United States. How does our new president impact your life and our community?

Essay

We have a new president now and it is Barack Obama. I am happy that he is the president, because he is very intelligent. Obama has given us the hope to say "Yes we can", even though we are not really sure that we can. He has united the whole country behind him, and given them inspiration. He said he would pay teachers more, like the ones in my school, and he would not let anyone get fired from their jobs. I am proud of him because he is our first Black president, and he has shown me that I can do anything that I want to do, even though I am Black. He is a good example for me of how to reach for the stars, and be the best I can be. I think he will be an amazing president, and maybe he might even change the world.
