

Citizenship

Nicole S.
YR109

What is a good citizen? A citizen lives in a specific area. A good citizen tries to help his community. If you want to be a good citizen, there are many ways to do it. Two ways to be a good citizen are being involved in the political process and helping others.

One way to be a good citizen is to get involved in the political process. All adults should vote. You need to vote because America needs a wise president. You want to be listening to the news so you can learn what is going on in the world. Then you can learn how to vote. Getting involved in the political process is one way to be a good citizen.

Another way to be a good citizen is to help others. In my family we are helping a man with cancer because we care for him. We try to give him healthy meals that he can eat. Whenever he travels we watch his dog. It's a lot of fun helping others and seeing the smile on their faces.

All in all, being a good citizen not only helps you. It also helps your country. I don't know about you, but I want to be a great citizen.